Wake up the World to Mercy

Catherine as a lay woman

6 pm - 7.30 pm Thursday 26 March

Dear Mercy friends,

We, the Mercy Futures Working Group, wish to invite you to our first reflection in our Wake up the World to Mercy program that will focus on Catherine McAuley’s years at Coolock.

In this presentation we will explore Catherine’s years of lay ministry whilst living at Coolock with William and Catherine Callaghan. These were Catherine’s formative years – from her mid-twenties through to her forties. Truly the seeds of the future are here in this time.

We will have opportunities to reflect on what a Mercy lay spirituality fully lived might look like in 2015.

Anne Ferguson will present and lead this session. Anne was employed in 2009 by the Parramatta Sisters of Mercy as the Coordinator of Mission Animation. The role facilitates the promotion of the mission, traditions and values of the Sisters of Mercy Parramatta. Anne works with staff of the Sponsored Works as well as with staff of Mercy-founded schools to help bring the mission of Mercy to life.

The evening will provide a great opportunity to catch up with Mercy friends and learn more about Catherine’s life. Light refreshments will be served.

When: Thursday 26 March, 6.00 pm-7.30 pm

Where: Catherine McAuley Rooms
6 Victoria Road, Parramatta

Parking: There will be some parking in the convent car park. If you require parking close to the venue let us know and we will reserve a parking spot for you.
